PRESS RELEASE

Enyo Law appoints new partner

LONDON - 2 October 2019 - Disputes firm Enyo Law is delighted to announce the appointment of triple-qualified international arbitration lawyer Evgeniya Rubinina as a partner, to further expand its arbitration practice.

Evgeniya has extensive experience representing investors and states in investment arbitration and as acting as advocate in international commercial arbitration. She is fluent in English, French and Russian and joins the firm from the London office of Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer.

In 2019, Evgeniya was named a 'Rising Star' for International Arbitration in the UK by the Legal 500 and was included in the Legal 500's 2019 London International Arbitration Powerlist UK alongside other members of Enyo Law's international arbitration team. She was also recognised as a 'Future Leader' in International Arbitration by Who's Who Legal and named Top Young Arbitration Practitioner by RAA40 (under-40 chapter of the Russian Arbitration Association), 2016-2018.

Simon Twigden, Enyo Law's Senior Partner, commented: "We are delighted to welcome Evgeniya to Enyo Law, to join our existing international arbitration team. We are extremely busy on the international arbitration front and Evgeniya's hire will help further develop our practice in this key area for the firm."

Note to Editors:

Evgeniya holds an undergraduate degree in International Commercial Law from the Moscow State Institute of International Relations and postgraduate degrees from the University of Oxford (magister juris and master of philosophy in Law) and Harvard Law School (LLM). She has contributed to numerous publications on private international law and international arbitration and is frequently invited to speak at international arbitration conferences in London, Moscow and elsewhere.
