PRESS RELEASE

Enyo Law appoints new partner

LONDON - 19 February 2018 - Specialist disputes firm Enyo Law is delighted to announce the appointment of Konrad Rodgers, a commercial litigation specialist, as a partner.

Konrad has significant experience of complex commercial disputes at all stages of litigation, advising an array of corporates, financial institutions and high-net worth individuals on cross-jurisdictional civil fraud, banking, shareholder and restructuring matters. He has a particular focus on Russian and CIS related disputes and has been involved in some of the highest value matters before the Commercial Court originating from these regions in recent years. Konrad also has significant expertise in disputes involving worldwide freezing orders, other interim remedies and enforcement measures.

Simon Twigden, Senior Partner of Enyo Law, commented that “we are delighted to welcome Konrad into the partnership. His appointment will add further strength to the breadth of talent in our commercial litigation and civil fraud practices and particularly to our expertise in Russian and CIS matters. This hire once again reflects that Enyo Law is firmly established as a team of choice for elite disputes practitioners. We look forward to working with him.”

Konrad Rodgers added that “I am tremendously excited to be joining Enyo Law and to assist it in further developing its already formidable commercial litigation and civil fraud practices. There is a natural synergy between my practice and the firm’s and I am very much looking forward to being part of its continued growth.”

Note to Editors:

Konrad has law degrees at undergraduate and postgraduate levels from the University of Oxford. After training in chambers and spending two Court terms as a Judicial Clerk in the Court of Appeal, Konrad moved to Dewey & LeBoeuf LLP in 2009. He subsequently practised as a Senior Associate at Cleary Gottlieb Steen & Hamilton LLP for four years before joining Boies Schiller Flexner (UK) LLP as Counsel in January 2016.
